8. Scripture Reading and Prayer by Bobby Simmons, pastor of Friendly Chapel Baptist Church. Text: Phillippians 1:27-30.

9. Harold King, pastor of Reepsville Baptist Church, preached the annual sermon, "It's no easy task."

In order to carry out our task, God's commandment, we must mimic Jesus Christ; we must care; as Paul - we must suffer for His name's sake.

To "share the dream" we must be unmoveable; must have a oneness of spirit; must go forward-be unconquerable; understand who we are. In other words, to share the dream, we must be unmoveable, unconquerable, unafraid.

10. Break

11. Musical Interlude by Harold Caldwell, Jr.

12. Christian Higher Education emphasis shared by Christopher White, president of Gardner-Webb College. He expressed appreciation to the association for what they are doing. These times are "best and worst." One college per month closes in the U.S. A part of our heritage dies. Enrollment at all time high...state universities, but declining in private universities. Note: Gardner-Webb has largest enrollment in history of the college.

Best times....Baptist are more interested in our roots, heritage. There is a growing sense of cooperation among Baptist colleges.

Our Baptist colleges are not in competition....crazy quilt pattern. We work together to cover the whole state. We are alike, but different....yet have a common thread; we are all children of the convention. We exist to provide christian education/concepts/call to service.

13. B.J. Morris introduced the guest speaker, Lamar Tribble, missionary to Santa Cruz, Bolivia.

14. Message in song "Eternal Life" by Dale Gilbert, First Baptist Church, Maiden, and accompanied by Harold Caldwell, Jr.

15. Missionary address given by Lamar Tribble, missionary to Santa Cruz, Bolivia. Scripture Text: Psalm 100
We are His people! We are a missions people (Matthew 18:19-20). He challenged us to life our eyes...see further out. Make this the greatest year our association/state has ever had for missions. Baptists are also known as "cooperative" people.....able to accomplish things we can not do alone. We need to join hands to get the job done. Referred to the Cooperative Program as a pipeline (channel) to reach the world.

What God could do if we were committed to Him. Baptists are to be a peculiar people for our Lord. 1 Peter, "You are a chosen race....called out of darkness into his marvelous light...now you have received mercy." We are his people to proclaim his excellency. We must make Christ known. Commit yourself to that. "A loving people, a praying people, a giving people, a witnessing people." If so, we will be peculiar for our Lord.

Anderson in seeking a sponsor for Terrell Mission; reported continued work with Harvest Time, and announced that they have called a pastor - Phillip Shuford - who will be arriving the first Sunday in November.

Dedication

The South Fork Baptist Association, meeting in the One Hundred Eleventh Annual Session, voted on October 16, 1989, to dedicate the 1989 annual minutes to the following faithful ministers:

PAUL KLUTZ DRUM

On March 13, 1901, Paul Klutz Drum was born in Catawba County to Perry David and Margaret Summit Drum. He was ordained to the gospel ministry in 1923 by Mt. Ruhama Baptist Church, having been licensed in 1921. Rev. Drum was a graduate of Mars Hill College, Wake Forest College and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. On September 8, 1928, he married Floy Setzer. Until his retirement in 1965, he pastored churches in the Catawba River, South Mountain, Gaston, South Yadkin and Mecklenburg associations, and churches in South Carolina. Churches served in the South Fork association include Maiden-First, Kid's Chapel and Center View. In retirement, Rev. Drum continued to serve as interim and supply pastor as long as health permitted. He went to be with his Lord on January 1, 1989.

DAVID COPELAND WESSON

David Copeland Wesson was born on September 23, 1899, in the western end of Lincoln County to John and Belle Wesson. Rev. Wesson began his preaching ministry at age 19. He was a graduate of Furman University, Greenville, S.C. On December 25, 1924, he married Vashti Blanton of Rutherford County. His pastorates include West View Baptist Church - Charlotte, McAdenville Baptist Church (twice), Old Fort Baptist Church (twice), First Baptist - Spruce Pine, and Mull's Memorial Baptist Church, Shelby. After his retirement, he spent more than 20 years serving churches in the Kings Mountain, Catawba River and South Fork associations as interim pastor. He became affectionately known to his fellow ministers as Doctor Wesson. He was respected and loved for his wisdom and gentle spirit. His home going was October 6, 1989.
